CUSTODIAL HISTORY

On June 24th, 2000, Pamela Andrews contacted Lucie Desjardins regarding a donation of documents and publications to the Archives and Special Collections (ARCS). After September 2000, the ARCS received a box of documents.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This fonds is part the Canadian Women’s Movement Archives (CWMA) at the ARCS of the University of Ottawa Morisset Library. It contains pamphlets, programs, articles and other material from various organizations, theatre companies and other groups.

This fonds includes textual records and objects (buttons). It is organized into 2 series.

SERIES DESCRIPTION

Series 1 : Textual records. – [198-?] – 2000. – 2 cm. of textual records (Box 1487). This series contains pamphlets, a brochure, programs of a benefit concert and workshop theatre productions and other material from various organizations including, among others, the Assaulted Women’s Hotline, the DisAbled Women’s Network (DAWN) and the Midwifery Task Group. The documents also include of photocopied press clippings with the Direct Action Group’s statements of resistance regarding the Litton bombing. This series is in alphabetical order.

Series 2 : Objects. – [1977], [between 1980 and 1995]. – 14 buttons (With Objects). This series includes 14 buttons from numerous organizations pertaining mostly to women’s rights and issues such as health, birth control and abortion. For individual descriptions of buttons, please consult the Pamela Andrews (X10-67) – Inventory of the objects finding aid.

NOTE ON ARRANGEMENT AND DESCRIPTION

We have maintained the original order in the file as provided by the donator.

NOTE ON LANGUAGE
The documents are in English with some text in French, Spanish, Ethiopian and Shona.

NOTE ON ACCESS

There are no access restrictions in this fonds.

NOTE ON REPRODUCTION

In this fonds, we have, in some cases, made photocopies for conservation purposes (i.e. in the case of press clippings). We have only retained the copy made on archival paper.

Reproduction of documents is permitted according to the Canadian Copyright Law.
